ELEELE STIRRED BY ASSAULT CASE

According to the police, a Chinese school girl named Ah Sin Leong, aged slightly less than 14, was criminally assaulted on the side road a few hundred yards Wahiawa of the manager's residence, McBryde plantation, last Thursday afternoon.

The assailant, it is alleged, was a young Hawaiian named Andrew Halalu, aged 23, a resident of Hanapepe. Early the following morning, before the police had learned of the crime, Halalu sailed as a seaman in the ship Kohala from Port Allen for Everett, Washington. An effort was made to overhaul the vessel at sea, by means of a steam launch, but without success.

The matter was forthwith laid before the Attorney-General at Honolulu and it is quite probable that either Sheriff Rice or Deputy Sheriff Crowell will leave here tonight for the Sound to take charge of the man upon his arrival there and bring him back to Kauai for trial.

The girl, Ah Sin Leong, together with several other children, had left the Eleele school to return to their homes far up the canyon. At the point above indicated, the party of youngsters were accosted by the Hawaiian. It is alleged that the latter frightened the other children away. The rest may be imagined.

The other children were very much frightened and their cries brought a Japanese to the scene. The victim of the affair shortly appeared, but the assailant had made his escape through the cane field. The children went to their homes in the valley several miles up.

That night the captain of the Kohala made a request of the Hanapepe police officer to find him a sailor, as he was short handed. The officer located Halalu and he was "shipped."

The following morning the parents and friends of the little girl came down and laid the matter of the assault before the police authorities. When it was learned that the Hanapepe police officer had shipped the man away, Sheriff Rice promptly suspended him from office. There has come about, however, a very substantial doubt that the officer knew anything of the assault when he shipped the young fellow on the Kohala, and if that can be definitely proved, the officer will probably be restored to duty.

It also seems probable that Halalu had no thought of going away when the assault was committed. Certain it is that he had not considered sailing in the Kohala, for the request to the police officer for a sailor came quite awhile afterward, that evening.

The case created considerable of a sensation around Eleele and Hanapepe, and has jarred the whole community. Such crimes have been rare on Kauai in the past.

Autos At Kukuilono

Complaint has been made that last Sunday visitors to Kukuilono park ran their automobiles indiscriminately over the lawns, regardless of damage done to the flowers and plants. This same thing has occurred before. Mr. McMryde now states that if this practice is continued he will simply have to close the park to vehicles. He does not see why the lawns should be run, over as roads in plenty are provided throughout the park.

FAREWELL DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

A farewell dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Moragne last Saturday at their home, Lihue, in honor of their nephew, Robert Middleton, who leaves Tuesday next to complete his college course at one of the Southern universities.

The affair was a most enjoyable one. Several bridge tables were set for those who preferred that form of entertainment, various other card games being also indulged in. Refreshments were served at eleven o'clock.

Among those present were, Messdames Ralph Wilcox, M. Ommanney, W. C. Avery, K. C. Hopper, E. Bridgewater, L. E. Mesick, E. H. W. Broadbent and W. N. Stewart; Misses C. A. Mumford, Lotie Jordan, Katherine Ommanney, Marjorie Wood, Katherine McIntyre, Thelma Hopper, Katherine Wood, Silburn Purvis and Grace Barker; Messrs. E. H. W. Broadbent, W. N. Stewart, K. C. Hopper, Frank Morrow, Albert Horner, E. F. McCall, D. W. Dean, H. Rice, Robert Middleton, and Mrs. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Moragne.

TRUANT CAUSES DOUBLE TROUBLE

Local Court Calls Honolulu Paper To Task For Story

Judge Dickey has written the following letter to the editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, of Honolulu:

November 24th, 1915.
Editor Pacific Commercial Advertiser,
Honolulu.

Dear Sir:
An article in Tuesday's paper November 23rd, "Industrial Home Truant in Band" fails to give credit where due and gives it where it does not belong, and gets the entire story much askew.

Koloa Missed Mail

Some of the people of Koloa feel quite put out on account of missing the Honolulu mail Saturday. The mail arrived at a point farther down the line and was delivered as far as Lihue, but in some way Koloa was omitted. An effort will be made from Lihue to have an overhauling of the present system of despatching mail from Honolulu to the island in the hope of getting better service all over.

Takes Many Pines

The Hilonian arrived at Port Allen Saturday, bringing 1400 tons of general cargo, a large part of which consisted of Christmas specialties. She sailed again at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon for Kaanapali, taking 9,500 cases of pineapples and 200 empty drums.

Koloa Bests Kekaha

In the Japanese baseball league the Koloa team last Sunday walked over the bunch from Kekaha, the score being 9 to 1. The game was played on the Koloa grounds.

THE HAWAIIIS WIN THE FIRST SERIES

What was generally conceded to be one of the best ball games witnessed at Lihue park was played off Sunday between the Hawaiis and Germans.

Lovell and Tai pitched for the former team and Henry Malina was catcher; while Kruse, of Makaweli, was in the box for the Germans, with Thielemann catching.

In the first inning, Hawaiis made three infield hits, while Kruse was getting acquainted with the catcher, scoring their only two runs. After that no Hawaii player reached third.

In the third inning the Germans succeeded in making a run, but failed to even the score, which gave the last game of the first series to the Hawaiis, 2 to 1, and left them the champions, with the Filipinos second and Germans third.

The second series begins next Sunday, games running in similar order to the first.

EPISCOPALIANS HEAR REV. TRACY

Rev. Mr. Tracy, of Epiphany Church, Kaimuki, conducted an Episcopal service at Lihue church Sunday.

In his sermon, taken from John 10:10, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly," it was shown how the modern trend toward greaser efficiency in every walk creates a corresponding conservation of man's precious life.

Civilization is the power of God placed at man's disposal, and the secret of all social reform, the impulse of all philanthropy and the power of the great world movement is but the life of God pulsating through the soul of man.

A number of pointed illustrations showed clearly that what the social reformer needs is more man and less law. Man's strength is but the strength of God in man, and is radiated abundantly, so why not open the window wide, he asked.

Christmas In Lihue

Lihue Store fairly bloomed out in holiday dress yesterday morning. Visitors to the store on Saturday hardly knew the place again Monday morning, so great had been the change. The holiday goods of Lihue Store were delayed slightly in transit, but now all are in hand and the showing is delightfully complete and elaborate.

Kilauea Pays Big

Three dollars a share extra dividend in addition to the regular dividend of 25 cents a month was declared by directors of the Kilauea Sugar Plantation Company on Nov. 16, according to the San Francisco Chronicle of the following day. This dividend, added to the regular dividends for the year makes $6 that shareholders will receive this year, or 24 per cent of the par value of the stock.

A very pleasing concert was given by Souza's band in Lihue park Sunday afternoon.

The matter of the distribution of the estate of the late Gustav Hansen will be heard in Judge Dickey's Court next Friday.

AN INSTRUCTOR IS COMING HERE

The following information of interest to Kauai National Guardsmen was given out at Honolulu yesterday.

A radio received yesterday at department headquarters, a copy of which was given national guard headquarters, brings information that the War Department has authorized the detail of another officer as inspector instructor for the national guard, this in addition to Lieut. W. C. Whitener, present inspector instructor. Authority also has been given for the detail of three additional Sergeant Instructors.

It was learned at National Guard headquarters yesterday afternoon that the new officer from the regular Army will be sent to the Island of Hawaii with two of the sergeant instructors. Fifteen companies of the guard are stationed there. The other two sergeant instructors will be sent one each to Maui and Kauai, leaving Lieutenant Whitener alone as inspector instructor for the Honolulu companies. This gives the national guard six instructors detailed from the Regular Army.

Japanese Thrown From Rig

J. Kinoshita, formerly employed at Hamano store, Nawiliwili, while driving along toward Nawiliwili last Wednesday at daybreak, sustained severe injuries about the head through a heavy fall from the wagon which he was driving. The fall was caused by the horse becoming frightened at some object seen in the half light, and suddenly swerving, caused the driver to lose his balance.

Dr. Hofmann was sent for to attend the man's injuries.
